Blue System, Vampire

He had a dream, a master plan To fight the day, as good as he can But the voice of silence, it's killing his heart Killing his heart

He worked so hard, when he was born Those were the days, unicorn But the voice of silence, it's killing his heart Killing his heart

Don't kiss the vampire, he walks in my sleep It's like a fire, still water runs deep Don't kiss the vampire, the ocean of fears Oh, his desire are sorrows and tears

Behind close doors, he's living so lonely Behind close doors, he's the one and only Oh, your blood is running to his heart

He had a dream, a lonely life
His friends are dead, but he survived
But the voice of silence, it's killing his heart
Killing his heart
Who wants to live, forever girl
In the darkness of the world
But the voice of silence, it's killing his heart
Killing his heart
