

Blue System, Venice In The Rain

Bittersweet

My heart feels so weak
Sailing home to a place I never know
Some hearts will never change
Some hearts will never change
A broken dream
I'm losing now it seems
Oh, I can't explain why I lose again
Some hearts will never change
Some hearts will never change

Leaving Venice in the rain
On the night I heard Caruso sing
Leaving Venice in the rain
Why you left me, my everything ?
Leaving Venice in the rain
Easter fall - the sun was moon
Leaving Venice in the rain
Baby, oh you left me much too soon
Leaving Venice in the rain
Breaking up and feeling so alone
Leaving Venice in the rain
Got nobody - is at home

Rescue me
I feel your destiny
I

I never get enough
Some hearts will never change
Some hearts will never change
Behind my smile
Oh baby see me cry
No tears of joy
Oh, I'm a lonely boy
Some hearts will never change
Some hearts will never change
