

Blues Traveler, Far Away

Music & lyrics: John Popper

Sometimes when I'm far away I ask myself
Are you all right, are you okay
Sometimes I laugh out loud or to myself
Thinking about something funny you might say

When I'm far away
Do you call my name
This is something I need to know
When you call my name
Do you really think of me
Please won't you tell me yes or no

I'm thinking back on all the times I needed you
But knew somehow it was never meant to be
Then I have to ask myself just one more time
Was there ever once that you just needed me

When I'm far away
Do you call my name
This is something I need to know
When you call my name
Do you really think of me
Please won't you tell me yes or no

I guess all that's left to say is I'm proud of you
I hope that I'll see you again some day
And I know very well I'll be near you again
The time will come when I won't be too far away

When I'm far away
Do you call my name
This is something I need to know
When you call my name
Do you really think of me
Please won't you tell me yes or no
