Bob Dylan, Ballad For A Friend

Sad I'm sittin' on the railroad track, Watchin' that old smokestack. Train is a-leavin' bit it won't be back.

Years ago we hung around, Watchin' trains roll through the town. Now that train is a-graveyard bound.

Where we go up in that North Country, Lakes and streams and mines so free, I had no better friend than he.

Something happened to him that day, I thought I heard a stranger say, I hung my head and stole away.

A diesel truck was rollin' slow, Pullin' down a heavy load. It left him on a Utah road.

They carried him back to his home town, His mother cried, his sister moaned, Listin' to them church bells tone.
