Bob Evans, Don't You Think It's Time

Don't you think it's time Time to start anew Time for changing views Time for making up your mind

Don't you think it's time Time for moving on Time for growing strong Time to leave the past behind

You've been on my mind Oh you've been on my mind You've been on my mind Oh you've been on my mind

Don't you think it's time Time for quelling fear Time for a new year Time for meaning what you say

Don't you think it's time Time for easing doubt

Time for reaching out Time to open up your eyes

You've been on my mind Oh you've been on my mind You've been on my mind Oh you've been on my mind

Don't you think it's time Time for trusting more Without keeping score Time to let forgiveness out

Don't you think it's time Time for showing grace Time for having faith Time to make more of this time

You've been on my mind Oh you've been on my mind You've been on my mind Oh you've been on my mind
