Bob Marley, No Sympathy

I can't find no love No sympathy What kind of love They've got for me I'm on my way To happiness Where I can find Some peace and rest

When I'm in my trouble here Only me feels the pain Not one good word of advice From any of my so called friends

I can't find no love No sympathy What kind of love They've got for me I'm on my way To happiness Where I can find Some peace and rest

Might as well, might as well I get out, I get out of hell Hell would never be made for me So I'm gonna search, search 'till I'm free

I can't find no love No sympathy What kind of love They've got for me I'm on my way To happiness Where I can find