

Bob Schneider, 40 Dogs (Like Romeo And Juliet)

well if I spell it out if i get it out will you hear me when I tell you about what I have to say before it ge well you're the color of a burning book you're the color of a sideways look from an undercover cop were like romeo and Juliet were like 40 dogs cigarettes we're like good times that haven't happened all the boys taking you for granted tell you what they want with their eyes all slanted. I don't like the put'um up high reach for the ceiling tell them I don't walk damnit im reelin' it aint no crime its just dr you take the high and ill take the low well get their before you know we aint got no time to waste w were like romeo and Juliet 40 dogs and cigarettes we're like good times that haven't happened yet sometimes you remind me of a moonbeam on the ghost of a moonbeam out on the beach down by come out tonight come out with me baby well throw the careful into the crazy turn the sky black into were like romeo and Juliet were like 40 dosgs cigarettes we're like good times that haven't happen
