

Bob Schneider, Under My Skin

Under my skin, I'm all wet,
Under my skin, I'm all bloody,
Under my skin, my heart lies broken,
My mind is acting funny.
Under my skin is a bad day,
Under my skin is a rattlesnake,
Under my skin where the infection sleeps,
I bend, and then I break.
Under my skin.
Under my skin it's a sticky mess,
Under my skin I'm turning to stone,
Under my skin there's a thousand demons,
and I'm always alone.
Under my skin the bones howl,
Under my skin the nightmares explode,
Under my skin I can't stop crying,
it's a long black road, under my skin.
Under my skin the itch is unscratched,
Under my skin I met my match,
Under my skin my dreams die unhatched,
cause there's always a catch.
Under my skin I never surrender,
Under my skin the past (something),
Under my skin there's a curse that you left,
and every night I make love to my hate.
under my skin.
Under my skin.
Under my skin.
Under my skin.
Under my skin theres never a tomorrow,
Under my skin I'm lost in the dark,
Under my skin I'm a master of sorrow,
and every night I swim with the sharks.
Under my skin I'm ready to run,
but under my skin there's nowhere to hide.
Under my skin the world is a stranger,
and I've al-already died.
Under my skin.
Under my skin.
Under my skin.
Under my skin.
I'll never let you in, I'll never let you in.
Under my skin. (til end).
