

Bob Seger, The Last Song (Love Needs To Be Loved)

Don't you know it doesn't matter
Who you are or what you'd really like to be Cause it's all without your mind
And you weren't born blind

And you don't have to see
Just keep it in your heart
And if it takes you far
It's a start man
It's a start
Women were sent from heaven above
And love needs to be loved
Needs to be loved

Love needs to be loved
Love needs to be loved
Love needs to be loved
Love needs to be loved
