

Bobaflex, Tears Drip

I was born yesterday, 300 years ago
And there ain't no explanation for this situation that I'm in
And I don't want to live forever, that's just the way it's always been
All of the children I've had in my life, I've watched them grow up and grow old and then die
And my wives, Oh how I've missed my wives
Why won't the angels come take me away

[Chorus]
Tears drip, cause a quiver in your lip
When I remember the people that I've left behind
Tears drip, cause a quiver in your lip
When I remember the reason that I'm still alive

I am ever human being
It's this curse, It's this gift, It's the blood,
It's the blood And I am the chosen one
I am the chose one

[Repeat Chorus]
This can't go on forever (forever)
This can't go on forever
Somebody take me away
Somebody take me away

[Repeat Chorus]
[Repeat Verse 2]
