

Bobby Bare, Countin' The Hours Countin' The Days

Countin' the hours countin' the days till I'll be back in your arms to stay
I left Lake Charleston on 72 and I drove the Highway 10
Took a ride at a second light and I turn back right again
Drove till I came to the junction 6 went to the transit 5-0-1
Stopped for gas at the Cumberland pass and dinned in Burlington
Countin' the hours countin' the days till I'll be back in your arms to stay [guitar]

Now out of Burlington I took old 70 headed west
I found me a picnic table and stretched out and I took a rest
I drove on across Montana dam till I came to Lake Awhoo
Took the prairie to the other side I was a coming home to you
Countin' the hours countin' the days till I'll be back in your arms to stay
Countin' the hours countin' the days till I'll be back in your arms to stay
