

Bobby Bare, I've Lived a Lot in My Time

I've lived a lot in my time

I once had a mansion and lived in my glory but now I'm down to my last dime

I once had a sweetheart but I was unfaithful yes I've lived a lot in my time

I fought the Grim Reaper down in the dark valley

I prayed when the sun wouldn't shine

I've looked through the bars of a cold lonely prison oh I've lived a lot in my time

[choir]

I've been a soldier and I've been a rambler I once thought that everything was fine

I've hoed in the cornfield I've picked in the cotton yes I've lived a lot in my time

I've walked with our Master down in the dark valley and wonderful peace I did find

But now some day I'll journey to Eden's green pastures

Oh I've lived a lot in my time I've lived a lot in my time
