

Bobby Valentino, Tired Of Being Alone

[Verse 1:]

Sorry that I've been so of and on
One day I'm feelin' you, the next day I don't know
The reason is that I been hurt before and now I'm insecure
Don't wanna feel it no more, but still

[Chorus:]

I really need someone that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone
Could you be that someone, that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone

[Verse 2:]

I don't call you like I should and it's takin' me a while
To open up to you, but when I look in the mirror
I'm just not the same and baby you are not the blame
I'm just being careful with my heart

[Hook:]

I need a girl with sensitivety and is it you?
I need a girl that's exclusively for me hopefully it's you, baby

[Chorus: x2]

I really need someone that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone
Could you be that someone, that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone

[Bridge:]

If you just hold on, I need you to stay strong
Just a little longer (I'm tired of bein' alone)
I'm little out off caracter, this ain't really me
Wait and you'll see, just hang in there with me

[Chorus: x2]

I really need someone that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone
Could you be that someone, that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone

[Bridge:]

I need a girl with sensitivety (Is it you? Is it you?)
I need a girl that's exclusively for me (Hopefully it's you)

[Chorus: x2]

I really need someone that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone
Could you be that someone, that I can call my own
That loves me just for me, I'm tired of bein' alone

I'm tired of bein' alone
I'm tired of bein' alone
I'm tired of bein' alone
