

Body Count, Truth Or Death

Lies, betrayal, lies truth or death.

Lies, betrayal, lies.

Who the fuck can I trust the whole fuckin' world is built on deception, false perception, look you dead in the eye and lie, your best friend'll stab you in the back yo, what the fuck is that.

Politicians lie,
what the fuck is that
your lover lies,
what the fuck is that.

The police lies,
what the fuck is that
the church fuckin' lies,
what the fuck is that.

Somebody tell me where's the truth every holy book is written by man probably by a liar's hand and if you feel that public schools are teachin' truth to the youth, motherfucka you livin' a lie too.

Lawyers lie, what the fuck is that doctors lie, what the fuck is that doctors lie, what the fuck is that your mother and father lie,
what the fuck is that

You lie to yourself

There is no truth only variations of lies.
Don't try to figure it out honesty is extinct and if it ever did exist the human race took it out.
