

Bodyjar, 17 Years

seen how you're treated don't wanna turn out like you so I'd adjusted
you left me feeling confused

I've wasted the last 17 years of my life
I'm not going back
But I'm gunna run away anymore
Not anymore

Under the carpet
You know the things that kids say
Cracks in the mirror
Words in a dark and whole way
All I remember spending december alone
Thanks for the patience
There's nothing left in my heart

I've wasted the last 17 years of my life
I'm not going back
But I'm not gunna run away anymore
Not anymore

I've wasted the last 17 years of my life
I'm not going back
But I'm not gunna run away anymore
(I will be waiting)
Not anymore
(I will be waiting)
Not anymore
