

Bodyjar, Five Minutes Away

Now ya think you know what to do
And things are comin back to you
Don't tell me its hard to see it'll Work out right

All you need is five minutes away
Your turnin every stone today
Don't tell me its hard to see it'll work out right

I cant believe you lied to me
There's no use tryin to explain
(it's) and every time you cross that line
(dissolving everything away)

Now ya think ya know what to do
There's always something else to prove
Don't tell me its hard to see it'll work out right
Just in time for somebody to say
I'll leave it here for you its ok
Don't tell me its hard to see it'll work out right
