

Bodyjar, Life Story

[Verse]

Am I awake, it's hard to say
I turn away from the darkest sunrise
I find my clothes and write a note
And let the rain wash the sleep from my eyes

[Bridge]

I won't lie to you I won't tell you something
Now I know there's nothing that I can do
And I'll be gone before tomorrow
Next time

[Refrain]

What if I said that I would do it again
Not giving up
Not giving up this time
My life story
My life story

[Verse]

It wasn't me it wasn't you
A torn up photo inside my pocket
A picture fades, One last mistake
And now I know it's too late to stop it

[Bridge 2]

I've lost everything when self doubt sets in
It seems so easy to runaway
As I look out the window towns keep passing by

[Refrain]

[Refrain]

[Bridge]

[Refrain]

[End]

What if I said that I would do it again
All unite and stand
My life story
My life story

This is my Life Story

This is my Life Story

This is my Life Story

This is my Life Story
