

Bombs and Beating Hearts, Halfway Hill

Sometimes i feel like i'm the only one not growing up
The only one that's still having fun
Remember when you and i
Skateboarded through the night
Underneath those city lights?
Well, meet at halfway hill
We'll make some time to kill
Pretend those times never ended
Meet at halfway hill
Our lives never felt so real
Let's make sure we live this to the end
Sometimes i get worried now
I feel like this can't work somehow
I get scared it's gotta end
Then i just remind myself
I got great friends to help me out
I've got no reason to be scared
[repeat chorus]
