Bombs and Beating Hearts, Halfway Hill

Sometimes i feel like i'm the only one not growing up The only one that's still having fun Remember when you and i Skateboarded through the night Underneath those city lights? Well, meet at halfway hill We'll make some time to kill Pretend those times never ended Meet at halfway hill Our lives never felt so real Let's make sure we live this to the end Sometimes i get worried now I feel like this can't work somehow I get scared it's gotta end Then i just remind myself I got great friends to help me out I've got no reason to be scared [repeat chorus]
