BON VOYAGE! Aiming to the Dazzling Light
Our Sparkle won't sink down the sunlight
Influence of people will greatly extend my courage
The ship to the future will appear in a moment!

Starting off everyone scatters, drawing their own horizons
Only now, peeping through a single telescope
Your Heart bewilders the wearisome Compass of Fate
Turning the tables, giving the rudder an unexpected twist

BON VOYAGE! Abandon the past and Although we are ,nevertheless, laughing unexpectedly
Grant the dream, even for tears
No regrets Precious in my life Oh...

A bent mirror won't reflect tomorrow don't you think so?
Yet, Sunshine sways away between the waves also attempting it's swift reflection.
You dive into the summer's big ocean spray
In the sky, a Rainbow is being built
Blue as the puzzle that is the fullness of space
At times, sadness also strikes, it seems a crisis where I can't see a cooled exit
"Take a Chance"
The answer is always Shining in your heartOh...

BON VOYAGE! riding over the rough waves
Our promissory note won't penetrate the letter
Let's go With one piece of courage
Is it okay?
This moment is Precious in my life
The ship to the future will appear in a moment!
