Bon Jovi, Something To Believe In

I lost all faith in my God, in his religion too I told the angels they could sing their songs to someone new I lost all trust in my friends I watched my heart turn to stone I thought that I was left to walk this wicked world alone

Tonight I'll dust myself off Tonight I'll suck my gut in I'll face the night and I'll pretend I got something to believe in

And I had lost touch with reason I watched life criticize the truth Been waiting for a miracle I know you have too

Though I know I won't win I'll take this one on the chin We'll raise a toast and I'll pretend I got something to believe in

If I don't believe in Jesus, how can I believe the Pope If I don't believe in heroin, how can I believe in dope If there's nothing but survival, how can I believe in sin In a world that gives you nothing We need something to believe in

If I don't believe in Jesus, how can I believe the Pope If I don't believe in heroin, how can I believe in dope If there's nothing but survival, how can I believe in sin In a world that gives you nothing We need something to believe in
