

Bonfire, Don't Get Me Wrong

Woke up this morning can't clear my head about the night before misunderstanding about the things that I said I can't take it no more - no

All night - I kept talkin' to you but just heard echoes from the wall

CHORUS

Don't get me wrong
I'm on your side
Don't get me wrong
'cause you are just afraid of losing your pride

I don't run for cover
I've got nothing to hide
It's just your jealous mind

Cards on the table
but you're still acting blind am I just wasting my time - yeah

It's like a nightmare - what you're putting me through can't you forget your foolish games
