

Bonfire, Don't Touch The Light

Anyway I got a feeling
Of 1984
True lovin' is forbidden
You better lock your door

But it's alright, when I see you it's makin' me high
Always hilding, in darkness, for you can burn your life in the light

So don't forget

Don't touch the light, don't touch the light before I go
Don't touch the light, don't touch the light before I go

Well it's a brave new world
Some kinda psychy war
You don't know what's going on
And what your life is for

You're lyin' and cheatin', for the night is a spy
And there's danger everywhere, for the hunters are out tonight

So don't forget

Don't touch the light, don't touch the light

Don't touch the light, don't touch the light before I go
