

Bonfire Pickets, I Look Into Your Deep Dark Eyes

I look into
Your deep dark eyes
I see my future
My future there
I think I am
Entitled now
To say that I don't care
That I don't care
If everyone should walk away
Except for you, my love
Since long ago you are the one
That I've been dreaming of
I've been dreaming of you

If you look straight
Into my eyes
I know what you would see
You'd see my wonder
My wonder and my joy
That you gave your
Your heart to me
My whole life's aim
Is to make you happy
And to make you smile
Make you smile
When I see your happy face
It makes everything worthwhile
