

Bonnie Bianco, Love Ain't Money

You keep telling me the same boy
Want a big piece of the cake
If you look out of the window
You'll see it's a big mistake
See those eyes and see those faces
They all want the same as you
I can only see their madness
Running wild like you
Gonna wake up deep in the night
You'll be crying all on your own
Gonna realize your doing ain't right
When it's much to late for turning around

CHORUS

Love ain't money,no,money can't buy you love
Love ain't money,no,money can't buy you love
Don't you see that you are moving
Further in a dead end street
Sometimes you will fall with no one
There to put you on your feet
You think money is the healing
Money makes the world go around
It won't substitute the feeling
Of knowing good friends around
Gonna wake up deep in the night
You'll be crying all on your own
Gonna realize your doing ain't right
When it's much to late for turning around

Honey,love ain't money,no,money can't buy you love
Honey,love ain't money,no,money can't buy you love
It's gotta be,it's destiny,you want to reach prosperity
It gives you strenght,and sense in life,and everything would
Be allright
You want it all,you need it all,you wanna build your nest of could
But when you touch the golden calf,you're gonna see it's cold
(Repeat Chorus)
