

Bonnie McKee, Confession Of A Teenage Girl

I'm just a girl
With good intentions i don't cry, to get attention most of the time

I'm just a girl
I do some damage
I use my gender, to my advantage is this a crime
if there is a time, i have a need and allaby i don't have to try, its built in it comes with the package ahhhhhh along with sugar and spice and everything nice the power i posses to entice its built in it comes with the package ahhhhhhh

thats why i love being a teenage girl feeling confined where i fit in the world i'm in bloom, i'm in bloom and if ever i'm caught doing what i should not they'll asume, i'm an innocent girl

i keep my promise i won't bite completly harmless, most of the time

my wrath is tender bat my eyes
in the surrender
is this a crime
along with sugar and spice and everything nice
its built in, it comes with the package ahhhhhh

feeling confined where i fit in the world
and if ever i'm caught doing what i should not
