

Bonnie 'Prince' Billy, Even If Love

Once again in the world,
Of twelve-hundred feelings
All in electric lights,
We see what we can

I love the sound o' wind,
Blowing at night through trees
From the roof i can see toons
Past the houses of the city

And i have been yours,
In fall and in praying
And i loved to look at you
From the side at night,
With music playing
And love will protect you
To the edge of the wood
And a monster will get you,
And love does no good

And even if love were not what i wanted
Love would make love the thing most desired
