

Bonnie Tyler, Wings

(Paul D. Fitzgerald - Bonnie Tyler/Paul D. Fitzgerald - O. Renoir - John Stage)

You came from nowhere
And pushed back the sky
I didn't want to go there
I preferred to deny

I thought - love was for dreamers
Angels and fools
I'd had my fill of schemers
Life was so cruel.....

Then you made me fly
You gave me wings
Made me wanna try - a thousand things
That I thought - I'd never do
Till I caught - first sight of you

I was picking up the pieces
Of a so-called broken heart
Then you proved the best release is
A "brand new start";

Ah, 'cos you make me fly
You give me wings
You send me high - above all those things
That I thought - would keep me down
But with these wings - I'm off the ground

Funny how we don't know - what's to come -
Ooh yeah
Just when we think the party's over -
You know, the party's just begun

'Cos you made me fly
You gave me wings
Made me wanna try - a thousand things
That I thought - ooo - I'd never do
Till I caught - first sight of you

'Cos you make me fly
You give me wings
You send me high - above all those things
That I thought - would keep me down
But with these wings - I'm off the ground

Then you made me fly
You gave me wings
Made me wanna try - a thousand things
That I thought - I'd never do
Till I caught - first sight of you

'Cos you make me fly
You give me wings
You send me high - above all those things
That I thought - would keep me down
But with these wings - I'm off the ground
