

Boo Radleys, Melodies For The Deaf (Colours For The Blind)

All my life has been so missable
A goddam crying shame Eyes to see with ears to hear while those who're not to blame Can't do what we take for granted trapped in their own heads I know if it were to happen now I'd wish that I were dead

I complain about my looks I feel bad bout my hair Jesus that's so sad I admit it now Why should anyone care let me be your ears your eyes your legs I'm what you need I can't go on living this life Wrapped in my own greed

I don't imagine I'll go, you never wanted to be that way, I never wanted to be this way

I love the light that shines and the sound that's all around
I love the light that shines and the
sound that's all around

And everyone knows
It's hard to do and say what is right
But that's alright
Cos we've got colours for the blind
