

Boogie, Rainy Days (feat. Eminem)

Nigga, I wear fur coats in the summer, nigga Wife beaters in the winter, damn

I've been thuggin' through my rainy days for days
I ain't really tryna hang today, today
I need changes in a major way
A way
I just pray I never fade away, away

I ain't sayin' I like 'em I'd kill all them niggas and wear 'emas coats word to the feelings I channel I lose 'em as quick as a fuckin' remote don't be callin' me woke I cheat on my queen for a ho that's ow shit go she keep ssayin' we je;; she gon' come out her shell ain't no pushin' my buttons when all of my feelings is stuck on ": oh, well" bitch, I am thirsty and blessed I pour liquor on grails this for my niggas in jail wrestlin' l's that's thet hell in the cell I come form a place were slim all my woman was basic we see different races since singing to Em I can't send out no message to none of my exes and bithces as friends I can't blow it again need a bitch that's as thick as my skin shit cause

I've been thuggin' through my rainy days for days
I ain't really tryna hang today, today
I need changes in a major way
A way
I just pray I never fade away, away
