

Boris, Take Me As I Am

hmmmmmmmm hmmmmmmmm hmmmmmmmm..

Take me as I am take my heart, my soul, my love Please dont make my lie Take your trust, believe and precious time I love the way you move lifts me up everytime you passing by I love the things you do
I love the things you do
My heart, my soul, my mind oehhhhh Yesterday is gone but tomorrow will pass New day wil dawn and new love comes alive road could belong to us to survive yesterdays gone so please take me as I am oohh...

See me as I am I'm as good as bad as everyone and please believe in me
In my heart, my soul, my mind
And we could compromise Start again, leave the sky behind and we don't have to lie no lies, no games, no alibies, ooooh

Yesterday is gone but tomorrow will pass new day will dawn and new love comes alive road could belong just for us to survive yesterday is gone but but tomorrow will pass
new day will dawn and new love comes alive
the road could belong just for us to survive yesterday is gone
So please take me as I am
