Borknagar, The Presence Is Ominous

The Presence is Ominous

Prior to the forces of primacy Concealed by the essence, the profane Withdraws in manners of erosion Spine of the universal conflicts

Swept towards a new domain Reversed in time, proceed in time Swallowed by dimensions Swallowed by the flames

I see fear so clear in the eyes The eyes that burn by sight I see fear so clear when you die

The cries that torches swept by I am yet to see the good victorious Thunder tamed by silence I am yet to see the man victorious Death tamed by life

Swept towards a new domain Reversed in time, proceed in time Swallowing dimensions Swallowing the flames

I see fear so clear in the eyes The eyes that burns by sight I see fear so clear when you die

Spine of the universal comfilcts
As the motion of winds and oceans
I am on the isle of existence, the mountains at my trail
I am prepared to die,
when the faith comes around to fail

Swept towards a new domain Reversed in time, proceed in time Swallowing dimensions Swallowing the flames
