

Bouncing Souls, '87

Do you remember when the days gone by or is there no point for us to even try Back when we didn't have a care in the world, Getting drunk and chasing girls Do you remember the days gone past and how we always wanted the good times to last The time we spent hanging out is how we learned what life is about Everything is set for the perfect night when music is playing and it sounds just right It gets inside and helps you to be all that you want and you are free Those times that we all hoped would last it seems that they've gone by so fast I woke up one day and i was 25 with a hell of a hangover and some demented sense of pride All we had was our dreams that's all we needed to be free
After the party came and went i found myself half bent
I had to stop and look around and my friends were all i found All these things i thought were wrong but these contradictions they made me strong I know i can be free and it all came from inside of me All we had was our dreams that's all we needed to be free Do you remember? I do!
