

Bowling For Soup, My Greatest Day

I've got the keys to the car
I'm going out on an afternoon vacation
There all know where i'm gunna go...

(chorus)

The sun is shining down and
There's no one else around now
I wish you were here to hear me say
This is gunna be my greatest day!
How far would i go?
How long would i stay?
To see it all...and carry it back with me again
How hard would i try
Just to hear everybody say
This is gunna be my greatest day!

Standing here looking out at the world
For a second nobody's looking back at me
I never even noticed where they go...

(chorus)

I've got the keys to the car
I'm going out on an afternoon vacation
They all know where i'm gunna go...
