

Bowling For Soup, Sometimes

you've got me under your thumb sometimes i feel so dumb you put a smile on my face but only sometimes
you make me weak in the knees i think its cute when you sneeze i think your shoes are so cool sometimes

you talk too much for me to figure out my motivation don't you know that your the only one

(chorus:)
(sometimes)
its not the things you say sometimes you're just in the way sometimes i feel like i cant live without you (sometimes)
i swear you make me sick sometimes i just want to kiss you and tell you i love you

you say you think i'm a square don't like the cloths that i wear you know i really don't care well maybe sometimes we made out at the show i think i should let you know that you could sure use a breathmint

you talk to much for me to figure out my inspiration don't you know that you're the only one

(chorus)
now i'm not saying that i'm really any better man i swear she's such a pretty girl (a pretty girl) a pretty girl i know she has her days and looks at me exactly the same way i know sometimes i bring her down but every once in a while i make her smile

it's not the things you say

(chorus)
for you i'd eat tofu and i don't like tofu but you make me so happy sometimes (you'v got me under ur thumb

you make me so happy sometimes

(in that last part he said "sometimes" a few times)
