

Box Car Racer, Tiny Voices

I've been all pinched up since Saturday
I've run my self dry of excellence
Sixteen long years in-hale the bullshit in Whatever I said on Saturday
Whatever I did I'll do it all again
Nineteen marks up walls
Each year one short fall of

Tiny voices, make things harder
Everybody will be let down
Everybody will be let down

What is this for ex-parking lot
The dreamers go buy they never stop
Twenty plus 5 in let the youth cave in

Tiny voices, make things harder
Everybody will be let down
Everybody will be let down

Tiny voices make things harder
Tiny voices make things harder
Everybody will be let down
Everybody will be let down
Everybody will be let down

Everybody will be let down
