

Boy George, Armageddon

(War is over!)

Words are useless now we understand each other
Wish I knew then what I know today
I search for sweetness in this, this lonely armageddon
You know I'm human, what else can I say

I don't want your blood, I don't want your fear
To fill you with regret for all these wasted years
No I, I won't die, I will rise again, all through these lonely nights

Don't beg him to stay
Don't beg him to stay
Don't beg him to stay, no way
Don't beg him to stay
Don't beg him to stay
Don't make a mistake, just walk away
Don't, don't, no
Just walk away
Don't you beg

(War is over!)

Words are useful when we, when we hurt each other
For all those things we never meant to say
I search for sweetness in this, this lonely armageddon
You know I'm human, what else can I say

I don't want your blood, I don't want your fear
To fill you with regret for all these wasted years
No I, I won't die, I will rise again, all through these lonely nights

Don't beg him to stay
Don't beg him to stay
Don't beg him to stay, no way
Don't beg him to stay
Don't beg him to stay
Don't beg him to stay, just walk away
Don't, don't, no
Just walk away, just walk away

(War is over)

Just walk away, just walk away

Little boys that don't get loved keep their pain away
Little girls that don't get loved sometimes do the same
Little boys that don't get loved hide their pain away
Little girls that don't get loved sometimes do the same

Just walk away (war is over)
Just walk away, just walk away
