

Boy George, When Will You Learn

When Will You Learn
From your tears and your sorrow
When will you see
Destiny is in your hands
When Will You Learn
You say you're gonna change
But day by day
Our lies remain the same
Glowing hot and crude hate
And you need someone to blame
And You'd do the same
Giving hate a name
Yes, You do the same
When Will You Learn
From your tears and your sorrow
When will you see
Destiny is in your hands
All of your tricks and lies
Boy, will count for nothing
When Will You Learn
I know you'll never change
But day by day
Our lies remain the same
Glowing hot and crude hate
And you need someone to blame
And You'd do the same
Giving hate a name
Yes, You do the same
