

Boyzone, Paradise

It's not often that you find someone
Who can fulfill all your dreams inside
Like an angel from above
She was the one for me, believe
But it doesn't wither like a flower in snow
I always wanted you to know

We're going to build a bridge
Between our hearts
Going to cross the river of love
Into paradise, paradise
Going to walk up the road, hand in hand
To the castle in the sky
Where we're going to live
Going to live, yeah

And when she opens up her eyes
It's like a perfect sunrise outside
I put my fingers through he hair
And it feels like silk to me

But it doesn't wither like a flower in snow
I always wanted you to know

[CHORUS]

Yeah yeah yeah yeah

Don't you know
We're going to build a bridge
Between our hearts
Going to cross the river of love
Into paradise, paradise

[CHORUS to fade]
