

Boyzone, Will Be Yours

Nananananana Nananananana
All that you want, will be yours
(All that you want, will be yours)
Look here now, read my lips
Focus on my fingertips
Understand, these open hands
I give to you, all that's true

So sail away and free your ghost
Give to whom you love the most
Give away and you'll believe
All good things, you'll receive

The more you give, the more you get
Always try, not to forget
So give it all away, hey...
All that you want, will be yours

Nananananana Nananananana
(All that you want, will be yours)

If I'm the one, you lookin' for
Then open up that bolted door
Let me in and lead me through
You know, I'll do the same for you

Step by step, you'll be aware
Heart to heart, if truth is there
Now give away and you believe
All good things you'll receive

[CHORUS X 2]

Open up your life and look at me now
See the one who loves you
For the one you really are

I've been waiting for so long
For this love to come my way
All good things come to those who wait
All that you want will be yours

Nananananana Nananananana
All that you want, will be yours

The more you give, the more you get
Always try, not to forget
So give it all away, hey....
All that you want

The more you give, the more you get
Always try, not to forget
So give it all away, hey....
All that you want.....
Will be yours

All that you want will be yours...
