

Bracket, I Won't Mind

I'm laughing at another day
I'm going through another phase

Will I take back the words I said
Will I take back what's in your head
Will I take back all your confidence
And I won't mind that I am here
I won't mind the ringing in my ears for now

Will you take a guilt trip with me
I've got some sights for you to see

Will I take back the words I said
Will I take back what's in your head
Will I take back all your confidence
And I won't mind that I am here
I won't mind the ringing in my ears for now

I won't mind that I am here
I won't mind the ringing in my ears
I won't mind another cloudy day
I won't mind if I show signs of age
I won't mind what's in your mind for now
