

Bracket, S.O.B. Story

I am a voice
Inside your head
Telling you to let go
I fill a void
Inside your bed
I'm someone you'll never know

You know what keeps me by your side
The random acts of suicide
So I can come to save the day

I can't decide / which way to turn
I'm a son of a bitch / sometimes
I'll never learn
Somebody make up my mind

My heart will beat
You to the ground
As long as it beats alone
Scratch the surface
To hear the sound
Of somebody you'll never know

You know what keeps me by your side
The random acts of suicide
So I can come to save the day

I can't decide / which way to turn
I'm a son of a bitch / sometimes
I'll never learn
Somebody make up my mind

It feels so good to stand on someone that you love
I'll love you more when I feel like I've had enough

It feels so good to stand on someone that you love
I'll love you more when I feel like I've had enough

I can't decide / which way to turn
I'm a son of a bitch / sometimes
I'll never learn
Somebody make up my mind
