

Brad Sucks, Dirtbag

it's a little bit hard to understand but i only wanna be a modern man on the wire it couldn't be nicer just thinking about the one that got away nobody wanna give me heart away you could make your mind up it could take your time up it seems you've mistaken me for someone who cares i'm just a dirt bag under the weather and overrated living underground taking it to the scene making money not knowing what it means i'm a liar set shit on fire take your time talking down to all your friends living with the little dogs and elephants it's hard to find it but i don't mind it hitching a ride with the bugs and the flies and i'm on my own
