

Brainpool, Here Comes The New Man

HANNES: Have you seen the sky today?
It's taken on a liquid shape
But nothing else has changed today, yeah
I'm the New Man
What difference makes a different man?
The difference lies within his plan
I'm gonna do the best I can
To match the Old Man

ALL: He's the New Man! He's the New Man! He's the New Man!
HANNES: Yeah, I'm the New Man!

ANNA: This is it - I've had enough
Nothing that you say can make me stay
For a while I thought you were Different from the others
This is it - I've had enough
I thought that you were different - but I was wrong

HANNES: Have you seen the sky today?
It's taken on a purple shade
But nothing else has changed today, yeah
I'm the New Man
"Empires may come and go"
I heard it on the radio
Or did my teachers tell me so?
Well; I'm the New Man!
