

Brainpool, Metro Jets Premiere Concert

ANNA: No one can touch me when I'm on stage
Protected by laser beams and smoke machines
All of my colleagues - and some of my friends
Tell me that I'm insane - that I am too vain
But they don't seem to understand the rock medium

Come - see the show
The Metro Jets' Premiere Concert
Won't you come and see the show?
The Metro Jets' Premiere Concert

So turn on the spotlights and open the gates
I'm ready to take them on and play my song
All of my colleagues - and some of my friends
Tell me that I'm too vain but I'm not ashamed
'Cause they don't really understand the rock medium
