

BrainStorm, Heart Of Hate

Raised in the heart of the city heat where the city never sleeps people falling apart from the rules will they ever learn I'm livin' day by day
I'm afraid to sleep
I'm livin' on the edge

Raised in the soul of a human zoo where pity has no name like a cancer that grows over time
I feel the anger rise
I'm livin' day by day
everyone seems to hate
I'm lookin' for a break

Hatred and violence surrounds and controls times gettin' harder I'm doin' time on skid row

Hate burns like fire in the depths of hell feels like I'm dyin' in this heart of hate

Depression fills the city streets I've seen where poverty grows no way to heal this cruel disease only pain remains
I'm livin' day by day
but life goes on and on
