

Brand New Sin, Shattered

(Verse 1)

Days blend

Nights bend

The twisted thoughts of you run through my head

Passion waits

Compassion breaks

All of this you held so dear

(Chorus)

So get in line

Step right up

Now's your time

Sit right back

Feel at home

Will you stay a while?

(Verse 2)

Reality sinks

Makes you think

All these feelings you know too well

Patience lied

Inside you cried

Now you're caught between heaven and hell

-Chorus

(Bridge)

It rages on day after day

And haunts you so to speak

With your head in your hands

You question why

The answers are buried deep

Beneath the lies

With shattered faith

Brings saddened eyes
