

Brandtson, Lie To Me

Lie to me
Oh baby, lie to me
Take this away
And lie to me

It's inside you
I don't know if I
Want the truth, tonight

So take what you've learned
And lay back and close your eyes
Pretend that there's an answer
And that everything is alright

Why, say it's true
Lie, just like you always do
Waiting for though the choice is ours to make
And this is more than I can take
Why, say it's true

Wait, wait, the truth is, that you're just hurt
So wait, wait a minute, just wait a minute
The proof is, the proof is it's in your words
Let's think about it, let's think about it
Wait, wait it can't be, it can't be true
Just say it isn't, just say it isn't
The truth, is the truth is, it's all on you
Can't we talk about it, let's talk about it

Why, say it's true
Lie, just like you always do
Waiting for though the choice is ours to make
And this is more than I can take
Why, say it's true

Lie to me
Oh baby, lie to me
Take this away
And lie to me

Lie to me
Oh baby, lie to me
Take this away
And lie to me

Why, say it's true
Lie, just like you always do
Waiting for though the choice is ours to make
And this is more than I can take
Why, say it's true
