Tell you about a city girl shes suprising you never get the better so totally amazing dont worry about nothing she just gotta be free, yeah so dont you, dont you try to mess with me

CHORUS they cant tame us so they blame us for everything so I say hey people dont know who I am

all they can say shes a bad girl
but they just dont understand no they dont know who I am thats right

burst my bubble just try, why dont you it dont matter anyway im putting up a great show moving on up and it feels so right speeding in the fast lane that is my vibe

hey
all the can say

I hear knocking at my door I turn the stereo up some more but what can you do when they blame it all on you

CHORUS

no no
