

Brave Combo, My Tears Are Nothing

They talk of destiny like it's a love word
I've got a better name, it's hurricane
Taking us in her arms crashing us downward
And my tears are nothing compared to your eyes... where icicles shone
Chorus:
Don't mind flirting with danger for I am no stranger to peril in places unseen
Oh your love was a time bomb exploding, now I'm blown apart in deep agony

There was a tower of hope, now there's just rubble
Where once a radiant man a vagabond
I hide away half crazed and oh so troubled
And my tears are nothing compared to your eyes... where icicles shone

Mis lagrimas son nada
O son nada son nada son nada
Mis lagrimas con nada
O no comparen con esa mirada tu mirada fria
Mis lagrimas son nada
Tu amor como una bomba una bomba escondida
Mis lagrimas son nada
Aye que cruel que cruel destino me toco

Mis lagrimas son nada
Vagabundo soy yo como rie el destino
Mis lagrimas son nada
Aye

Chorus
